

WAYS TO KEEP UP WITH THE PLAN

- Daily Reading Schedule:
Allocate a specific time each day for Bible reading.
- Reading Plan App:
Use Bible apps to track your progress and provide reminders.
- Set Goals:
Aim to complete a division at least three times a month.
- Accountability Partner:
Find someone to read along with and check in with each other regularly.
- Use a Journal:
Keep a journal to record thoughts, prayers, and reflections on each division you complete.
- Weekly Reflections:
Dedicate weekly time to review what you learned that week, summarizing insights or themes.
- Celebrate Progress:
Reward yourself for hitting milestones, like completing a book or division.
- Be Flexible:
If you miss a day or week, don't be hard on yourself. Adjust your schedule or catch up during weekends.
- Visual Reminders:
Create a visual chart or calendar in your home with goals and check-offs for each division completed.

5-YEAR Bible Reading Plan 2025 – 2029

This Five-Year Bible Reading Plan divides the Bible into 60 equal parts, allowing us to complete our reading from January 2025 to December 2029. This plan provides for a slow and casual reading of Scripture so you can read it three to five times a month.

2025:	Genesis – I Samuel
2026:	II Samuel – Psalm 106
2027:	Psalm 107 – Malachi
2028:	Matthew – Romans
2029:	I Corinthians – Revelation
