BOOK OF THE MONTH

For anyone who feels the weight of injustice, trauma, and suffering, the founder of the Jude 3 Project invites you to discover how to find hope when you can't make sense of the pain. "Lisa Fields brilliantly offers hope for all who seek to practice their faith without the cruel dogma nurtured by Western culture."—Otis Moss III, senior pastor of Trinity United Church of Christ, Chicago

Living as a Black woman in America, Lisa Victoria Fields understands the tension of relying on God in a broken world. While pursuing her calling in full-time Christian ministry—an often white, male-dominated vocation—she saw the contentions many people have with Christianity. She heard the theological questions, but instead of arguing for her faith, she listened to the barriers and heard the pain in their hearts: Why doesn't God protect me from suffering and injustice? Others don't seem to think I have value—does God?

Now, in her debut book, Fields shows us how emotional pain—often more than theological concerns—is at the root of our doubt. She invites us to bring our deepest soul questions to this journey as she explores:

- Seven pain points that might be keeping us from faith: a lack of personhood, peace, provision, pleasure, purpose, protection, and power
- Honest talk about how Christianity doesn't seem to meet our very valid needs
- Why wrestling with God doesn't negate our faith but instead deepens it
- What it looks like to allow God to bring healing to our pain so we can see Him and others more clearly

Through vulnerable storytelling and thoughtful use of Scripture, Fields tends to our hurting hearts and offers hope and resolve. Jude 3 Event on Friday, March 14th from 6 pm until 8 pm & Seminar on book, Mar 15th from 10 pm until 11:30 pm, both at Mt. Sinai Church at 3669 West 54th Street, Los Angeles, CA.

PRAY FOR THE SICK AND SHUT-IN/RECOVERY/ THOSE THAT WERE DISPLACED BY THE WILDFIRES

Let's not forget our sick & shut-in/recovery. As we all need prayer, please remember those among our church family who are currently dealing with health issues at home or in other places, such as nursing and rehabilitation facilities, and assisted living facilities.

"...and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much."
